from the pastors Jonathan Chute

The days are growing lighter and longer, even as they are growing shorter for our time together as pastors and congregation. April and I knew one another in seminary, and while our paths over the years since our ordinations were quite different, I realized a while ago that we will both reach retirement having served three congregations each over the course of 41 years. For United Methodist clergy that's extremely unusual.

April's journey began with an appointment in Hawaii – mine in Pacific Palisades. Community UMC was a remarkable congregation, having literally founded the community in the 1920s. Pacific Palisades was a west coast version of the Methodist religious and cultural center and festival at Lake Chautauqua, NY. Noted preachers proclaimed the gospel, opera singers, symphony orchestras stirred people's hearts, lecturers from around the world presented an early 20th Century version of today's TED Talks. By the time I was there, of course, those events were a distant memory. But the people of that church helped me to discover and claim a sense of identity and purpose as a young pastor.

After four years on Kauai, April came home to Pacific Beach, not far from where she had grown up in Coronado. Thyra and I left for her home country for her to attend medical school near where her family lived in Toronto. The Methodist Church in Canada became part of the United Church of Canada back in 1925, so I would have to find my way in a related, but different, denomination. Trinity United Church was the only congregation looking for a pastor within about 50 miles. So it seemed like a good idea to get hired there! Fortunately they agreed, and we spent the next nine years with another amazing group of people. Hannah was born there, and I had the opportunity to deepen my sense of what ministry was about.

We had planned to return to California eventually, and when Thyra was finishing her residency in radiation oncology it turned out that Rolling Hills UMC was praying about who could follow their beloved pastor, the Rev. Dr. Martha Rowlett, after her ten years with the congregation. The effort to discover her successor was thorough and careful, and led the bishop, the Rev. Dr. Roy Sano, to make the appointment that brought Thyra, Hannah and me to Rolling Hills. We have felt a sense of welcome and home here from the very beginning. I cannot imagine a better place or people to have served the majority of my work as a pastor.

April served 23 years with Pacific Beach, and we are all so fortunate that she came to be with us for the past 11 years here. Her gifts as a shepherd, a teacher, leading prayer and worship, proclaiming the gospel in her own clear voice have blessed this congregation and community.

Two pastors. Three churches each. Forty one years of rewarding, challenging, joyful, gracious, occasionally perplexing, painful or stressful experiences serving God's people through the United Methodist Church. I wouldn't trade it for anything.

Wishing you all a blessed and happy Easter!

Grace and peace,

Jonathan

April Herron

Dear Friends,

Things don't always go as planned! I missed a significant part of March at RHUMC because I discovered at the end of February that I needed surgery on the retina in my right eye. Fortunately, the surgery was scheduled immediately and has been successful. For this, and for all of your cards, prayers, and well wishes, I am thankful. The capacity for that eye to see clearly continues to improve. In the later part of this month, I am scheduled for what I hope will be the final appointment with the surgeon.

We are all vulnerable to unexpected disruptions (and some of us were amused by the apt title of our pre-Easter Bible study, "An Unlikely Lent."). That is one reason we treasure being part of a community which generously offers encouragement and is willing to jump in and help. I am especially grateful for Nancy Wallis, who taught the Bible Study for two weeks in my absence, and those who offered prayer in worship on the Sundays I could not be present: Kathy Platnick, Susan Welch, and Tony Moretti. I was the beneficiary of many kind and thoughtful gestures. In fact, I am continuing to enjoy an ample supply of emergency chocolate!

We are arriving now in the season of new beginnings. We invite the wider community in, we host a Good Friday concert and a Saturday egg hunt, we make space in the pews by adding an extra worship service on Easter Sunday, and most of all we celebrate the grace of God extended to all the world. In a very full sequence of days that begins with Maundy Thursday, we grieve the violence that caused the death of Jesus and still plagues the world, and then we open our hearts to the hope bestowed on us through God's never-ending power for life.

I look forward to seeing, with renewed eyesight, all of your wonderful faces!

Good Friday Concert - April 3 at 7:00 pm

Plan now to join us for our annual Good Friday Service featuring music that reflects on the Passion of Christ. The Chancel Choir will again be joined by members of the Inner City Youth Orchestra of Los Angeles as they present performances of music that display the diversity of Christian Fellowship, including Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs by Antonio Lotti, Misa Criolla by Ariel Ramirez (sung in Spanish), Requiem by Gabriel Fauré (sung in Latin), Laudate Dominum by Mozart featuring our resident Soprano Abigail Whitman (sung in Latin), and Were You There by our Music Director Charles Dickerson (sung in English). The program will take place in the sanctuary on Friday, April 3, at 7:00 pm. There is no charge or tickets for this service. But early arrival is encouraged.

April Book Discussion

This Month's Book Discussion: Sacrament by Susan Straight

Could there be a better title than "Sacrament" for a book discussion hosted by a church? Susan Straight is a California author who sets her fiction in her own community of San Bernardino. Real events and actual neighbors inspire her themes and storylines. "Sacrament" is set in the early months of COVID and pays special attention to hospital nurses and public safety officers, recognizing the special struggles and sacrifices of that era. Straight published her first book in 1990 and was a National Book Award finalist in 2001. The LA Times reviewed this novel as her "finest book yet."

All readers are welcome. We will gather in person at 2:00 pm on Monday, April 27. The 7:00 pm group meets via Zoom. The conversation lasts one hour. Please email april@rhumc.org to communicate your intention to participate.

Pastoral Transition Update - by Kathy Platnick & Janet Westergaard

As you'll see elsewhere in this Cornerstone, a season of celebration is upon us as a fitting send-off for Jonathan and April's remarkable 41 years of ministry. We hope you'll join us for one of the festivities being planned in their honor.

As that baton passes, we are truly excited to welcome the Rev. Bonnie Hawk as RHUMC's next Senior Pastor. The Bishop has now formally announced Pastor Bonnie's appointment to the full conference, making it official for all.

Many of you may not be aware of the years of discernment that led to this moment. The Staff Parish Relations Committee has been engaged in a three-year process of identifying pastoral candidates for the Bishop's consideration. This process included listening to more than 100 sermons from potential candidates across the United States. It was in that process that we encountered Pastor Bonnie, and we hope the sermon and talk contained in the links below give you a taste of why we were so encouraged by what we heard.

What Joy

It Only Takes a Spark

We are also pleased to share that the search for a new Associate Pastor to carry forward the ministry April has so graciously tended is already underway. While a formal announcement before Easter is unlikely, we are hopeful to have news to share sometime in April.

Before then, we have a special opportunity to welcome Pastor Bonnie in person: she will join us in worship on April 12 and assist with communion. In the meantime, please continue to lift up Jonathan and April in prayer as they finish this chapter and begin anew, and Pastor Bonnie and Noah as they prepare to answer God's call to serve this congregation.

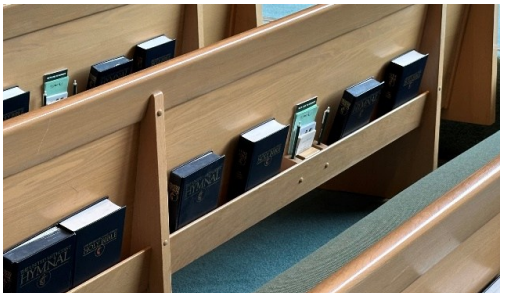
Altar Guild Opportunity



Do you like to spend time in a place of peace & beauty? Do you like a sense of order?

The RHUMC Altar Guild is a group of men and women who serve God by preparing and tending the place in which we worship. Altar Guild work goes on behind the scenes, usually on Saturday mornings. They are responsible for creating the familiar scene in the church that worshippers expect to see at Sunday services. Altar Guild members generally serve one month a year, and it takes about an hour per weekend.

Have you considered joining the Altar Guild? Here are some reasons God may be calling you to this ministry:
- You will be joining a host of other individuals who week by week create our services of worship, including choir members, acolytes, liturgists, ushers, and communion stewards. As part of Altar Guild, you will be making a valuable offering to our community's worship life.
- You will grow spiritually. Members of the Altar Guild find this work to be a true ministry of devotion and prayer.

If you would like to learn more about this ministry to see if it is something you might have fun doing, email or call Chris Larson at chrislarsonrhumc@gmail.com or 310-738-3909.

Volunteer Opportunity - Decorating for Easter

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who donated beautiful flowers for Easter. Now we need volunteers to help put them out! We will meet on Saturday morning, April 4, at 8:30 am. We will raise the large cross in the narthex and decorate the sanctuary. This is a wonderful opportunity to prepare for Easter surrounded by beautiful flowers!

Then, these flowers will look beautiful in your home! After the 10:00 am service on April 12, please help us take the Easter flowers out the side doors and clean up. Even 15 or 20 minutes of help can make a HUGE difference!

Missions Committee News

Hungry to Help Drive for the Unhoused Coming in May

Throughout May the Missions Committee and Youth Ministry will be collecting hygiene items for our partner Hungry to Help, which serves unhoused and low-income people in San Pedro, providing health care screening and aid on a regular basis. Hungry to Help was founded by Ana Ahmad, a former RHUMC Youth Ministry member. She will describe their mission during worship services on April 26.

To help these volunteers, who are mostly young doctors and medical students, serve the community, we can provide some of the physical needs for their clients through our May drive.

Items needed include socks, men's underwear (L and XL), women's underwear (M, L, and XL), washcloths, wet wipes, feminine pads/tampons, nail clippers, towels, hand sanitizer, toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, body wash, shampoo and conditioner, and razors.

Items will be collected in the Narthex every Sunday in May. Financial donations are also welcome. You can write a check to RHUMC, with Hungry to Help in the memo line.

We have a tradition of generosity with this annual drive, and we look forward to your participation. If you have any questions, contact Debra Shrader at teach2play@gmail.com.

Gratitude from St. Paul's UMC Project: Needs

We would like to share a thank you note we recently received from St. Paul's UMC Project: Needs. Your support makes a difference.

Budget Update

Each year our congregation's giving varies with the seasons. In some months our cup runneth over. In others it may feel a bit leaner. In lots of churches giving trends upward as we move toward Easter, and again as we close the year at Christmas. Thanks to your generosity we have sustained a vital mission despite the variations from month to month. As of the end of March, gifts to our congregation's life and work total $272,000. That represents about 20% of our giving goal for the year. Over the coming weeks we count on your generosity to see us through. The world needs to hear the good news of resurrection and new life now as much as ever. Thank you for all that you do to make our mission possible.

Memorial Wall Dedications

The Memorial Garden and Wall is a designated space to memorialize loved ones, providing a quiet and serene place for family and friends to visit, reflect and pray. If you would like the name of a loved one etched on the wall, contact the church office. If a spouse dies, the surviving spouse may reserve a space for him/herself. Reserved space will be etched with name of surviving spouse only – no dates – to ensure the space is not accidentally taken. The fee to the family requesting the engraving is $300. Net proceeds will be used for name engraving and for the maintenance of the garden and wall. Other utilizations of the garden are for meditation, small weddings and memorials and for small group gatherings, including classes. For more information, contact the church office at churchoffice@rhumc.org or 310-377-6771.
